VIC-009

The illustration depicts a classroom or lecture hall setting. A man in a suit and glasses stands at the front, pointing with his right hand towards a large board. The board is titled 'ULAM SPIRAL' and displays a grid of numbers arranged in a spiral pattern. The numbers start from 1 in the center and spiral outwards. The board also includes a small diagram of a spiral. In the background, a poster is visible with the text 'INTERNATIONAL MATHEMATICS SYMPOSIUM' and 'SCIENCE PATTERNS PRIME NUMBERS'. Several students are seated at desks in the foreground, looking towards the board.
